The Experience of a Lucky Mar

The Merioli Day Book.

Mr. Geo. R. Gornto, the lucky man of Princess Anne County, Va., who drew the $30,000 prize in the Louisians State Lottery, was heavily in debt, with a mortings on the farm, and things going behindhand with him generally. He got hold of a copy of the advertisement of the Lottery. He determined to make a venture. He had but $5 15 in the world. He wrote to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Bor 692, New Orleans, and enclosed $2 in the letter, and was just about to send it off to the Post Office by a boy, when a negro hand of his called him and demanded his wages, which just amounted to $5. He offered the man the $3 he had left, but this was declined by the darky, who threatened to leave his work just at a critical time unless he got the whole. He took the letter, and the $2 out of it, which, with the $3, he handed to the man.

Thus was he with but fifteen cents cash handed to the man.

Thus was he with but fifteen cents cash in the world; and while in this melar choly frame of mind, about an hour at choly frame of mind, about an hour afterward, anegro man drove up and bought a load of fodder, amounting to $1.90, not enough to pay for the ticket, but with tencents in his pocket he made up the amount, and re-wrote the letter and enclosed $2. The next thing that turned up from that $2 was the gratifying intelligence that his ticket had drawn a prize of $30,000, more than enough to alter his current of bad luck, enable him to raise the mortgage, stock his farm well, and put him on his pins again. Such is luck.
